anyone who wants to understand what militant muslims think has to understand what they read and they read sayyid qutb the intellectual father of islamic fundamentalism qutb an egyptian literary critic and philosopher who was appalled by american decadence gained prominence in the muslim brotherhood was imprisoned by nasser and hanged in 1966 through his death and prolific writings he became a martyr for the cause of political islam his work is virtually unknown outside the muslim world but qutb is at the heart of the intellectual rationale for jihad and violence in the name of islam the sayyid qutb reader is the first collection of his selected works available to the general public as such this valuable introduction to qutb s core intellectual ideas should be read by anyone who wants to understand one of the most important conflicts of our age the debate over islam and modernity tends to be approached from a eurocentric perspective that presents western norms as a template for progress against which islamic societies can be measured this misses the historical development of muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure islam within the diverse conditions of modernity safdar ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against western ideas rather ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of western influence runs through modern islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals such as muhammad abduh qasim amin and abdul a la maududi
